Georgian Fashion

In Georgian times (1714–1830) Southampton became quite fashionable. Rich people would travel to the town to visit a natural spring because they thought it would improve their health. Even the Prince of Wales visited. People would make sure they looked their best for their visit.

Can you draw yourself as a fancy Georgian ready for a trip to town?

Georgians often wore big wigs like these. They were only washed every few weeks so they could be very smelly and full of lice!

Can you imagine wearing wig like this?
