

Tudor House and Garden Visual Guide

Welcome to the Tudor House and Garden visual guide. It will show you what to expect when you visit the house.

Entrance

You will come into the house using this door.

There will be someone at the front desk to welcome you when you get inside.

Downstairs

There is lots to explore downstairs at Tudor House.

Banqueting Hall

Sometimes there is a show that happens here.

During the show the room is very dark and there are light and sound effects.

Buttery

There is a bright screen in this room, but it doesn't have sound.

Victorian Kitchen and Tudor Kitchens

These rooms have some things in them that you can touch or smell.

Work Room

This room has an interactive screen to show you what it would have looked like in the past.

Sometimes there is a person at the table who can show you objects from the house that you can touch.

Cafe

There is a cafe on the ground floor.

The cafe sells hot and cold food and drinks.

Garden

King John's Palace

Upstairs

Tudor House has lots of rooms to explore upstairs too.

To get upstairs, you could use these stairs.

There is also a lift. Please ask a member of staff if you would like to use it.

Georgian Room

Poor Room

We have lots of different exhibitions in this room so it may look slightly different when you visit.

There is a bright screen in this room that plays a video with sound.

Rich Room

There is an interactive screen in this room that can show you what the room might have looked like in the past.

Old Museum Room

Toilets

If you need the toilet while you are at the house, there are toilets on the ground floor next to the work room.

There are also toilets next to the cafe.

If you need help

If you need help in the house ask a member of our staff. They will be able to help you.

Some staff wear a black uniform like this.

Some staff don't wear a uniform. They just wear name badges like this.

We hope you have a great time at Tudor House and Garden. We are looking forward to welcoming you
